Workshop Teacher

Rebecca Blackhall-Peters

Rebecca was born in the Fraser Valley of British Columbia. She has now moved to the Okanagan Valley and is residing in Summerland, BC. In 1995 she took up SCD and earned her Teacher's Certificate in 2001. As she had a background in classical ballet, pointing her toes was not a problem, however, it took quite a bit longer to learn the formations and dances! She has taught a General class in Fort Langley for the last 18 years, and taught at the Vancouver Branch. She now teaches the Naramata Scottish Country dance class in Penticton.

She has taught workshops throughout North America, and has been a core teacher at TAC, St Andrews and New Zealand Winter School.

Registrants are required to have at least one year of regular participation in a SCD class
