Lin has been a San Francisco branch member since 1977 and a performance dancer with Red Thistle Dancers for more than 40 years. She loves participating in small performances for community groups as well as full fledged stage shows. Lin dances everywhere she goes and very much enjoys the friendships and camaraderie of Scottish Country Dancing. Dancing has taken her to many far flung places, from Indonesia to the Czech Republic and to lots of different cities in the UK, Canada and U.S.

In her non-dancing life, Lin enjoys community theatre and musicals, visits to the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, walking, hiking, reading all sorts of books, spending time with her husband and visiting their three grown children in Oregon. And now, with her recent retirement from her day job, she hopes to be able to squeeze in even more Scottish dancing!
